"We must strive to do ordinary things extraordinarily well."
~ Catherine McAuley

STUDENTS: There is a green bag in the Attendance Office containing non-Merion clothing items. Please come to see if any of these items belong to you; there will not be any claim fee. If they are not claimed by dismissal today, then they will be given away. If you have any questions please see Ms. Fahy.

ATHLETES: There will be a softball team meeting today at 3:15pm in room 115 for all those who are interested in trying out.

STUDENTS: The Media Center will be open for silent study next week during the hours of examinations.

ARTISTS: Are you creating a Memory Portrait for a Syrian refugee child? If so, please remember that completed portraits are due to Mrs. Boyd by Tuesday, January 16th.

STUDENTS: Poetry Out Loud is coming! All students are welcome to participate in our annual PoL competition, which will take place after school on Wednesday, January 17th. See your English teacher or go to the Contests note on Ms. Sack's eBoard for more information.

"All the world's a stage," Shakespeare tells us. Don't miss your moment in the spotlight! Auditions for the annual Shakespeare Competition will be on Tuesday, January 23rd and Wednesday, January 24th. See your English teacher or go to the Contests note on Ms. Sack's eBoard for more information.

STUDENTS: This is advanced notice that the MVP Joe Corbi fundraiser will begin on Thursday, January 18th. Please spread the word to family, friends, and neighbors that you will be selling delicious Joe Corbi products. This is the only fundraiser for MVP and we are counting on your support!

STUDENTS: The Father-Daughter Dinner Dance will take place on Friday, February 2nd from 7:00pm to 11:00pm at the Drexelbrook. Mr. Pidot has already emailed you the details and a downloadable RSVP form. Your parents will also receive the same information via email. Additionally, it is posted on the school website. RSVPs and payments must be received by the Office of Student Affairs no later than Friday, January 26th. A sign-up sheet for table seating requests will be made available in the days ahead.
