Day 7: Bell A78
Math Week
National Language Honor Exams
No co-curricular period

“No work of charity can be more productive of good to society than the careful instruction of women.”
~ Catherine McAuley

STUDENTS: Today begins Math Week! Each day has something in store. Remember to keep your eye out for pi symbols (π) around the school today. You can/should turn the symbols you collect into your teachers for a delicious Tasty-Kake pie. Enjoy a fantastic time.

STUDENTS: If anyone misplaced money this past Friday, please see Ms. Fahy in the Attendance Office today.

STUDENTS: Due to the online National Language Honor Exams, the computer lab will be reserved and closed today during code 1A and 1B.

JUNIORS: Please read your email today for important information regarding details for your class retreat and Ring Night. You’ll find separate messages from Sister Anna and Mr. Pidot; please be familiar with both.

STUDENTS: The national online language exams begin on Monday, March 13th. This will result in the closure of the computer lab, library, reading room, and/or CLS during some codes for the next three weeks. Look for signs on the doors of computer lab for day and codes of closures.

FRESHMEN & SOPHS: Information is posted online (www.merion-mercy.com) regarding the Soph Hop semi-formal dance on Saturday, March 25th, from 7:30 to 10:30 PM at Waldron Mercy Academy. Join us for an entertaining “Evening under the Stars”! Tickets are on sale in the Office of Students Affairs for $34/couple and $18/single from today through Friday, March 24th. Download, complete, and submit a required permission form from the website. Please see Mr. Pidot with any questions.

STUDENTS: Attention all vocalists, instrumentalists and dancers! Auditions for the Performing Arts Festival will be held on Thursday, March 16th, beginning at 3:15 PM in the Music Room. If you are interested in auditioning to be a soloist, please sign up for a 5 minute audition slot on the bulletin board outside the Music Room. Any questions, please see Ms. Brown or Ms. Moretto.

STUDENTS: The Haverford Township Recreation Department is looking for applicants ages 18 and over to join their All-Star summer staff. They’re also taking applications for Junior Counselors ages 16-17. If you have strong leadership skills and enthusiasm, please complete the application and email it to Kirsten Taylor at ktaylor@havtwp.org. Applications will be accepted no later than Friday, March 17th. The application can be found at: www.haverfordtownship.org/department/division.php?structureid=103.

ARTISTS: Image Explosion has finished selecting artwork for this year’s issue. Any art that IE cannot use has been returned to a box outside room 245. These artworks must picked up and taken away by Friday, March 17th.
STUDENTS: What are you doing for Lent? How about a day at SHARE food bank on Saturday, March 18th, departing MMA at 8:00 AM (from the front of the building)? The experience will end by 1:00 PM. Sign up on the CSC bulletin board today.

STUDENTS: Five volunteers are needed at Cradles to Crayons to help organize donated school supplies for children in low-income families in Philadelphia on Tuesday, March 21st, from 6:00 to 8:00 PM. Sign up at the CSC bulletin board and contact Kristen Beckett with any questions.

JUNIORS: Members of the Summer Classical Program traveling to Italy in June are reminded that the next meeting for students will be held on Tuesday, March 21st, at 6:00 PM in the STM meeting room. Attendance is mandatory for all students. You must see Ms. Ozzimo if you cannot attend. Additionally, the final payment is due on Wednesday, March 22nd.

STUDENTS: Attention, freshmen, sophomores, and juniors...Grab your passports! Merion is planning to travel abroad! Please see an e-mail from Mr. Pidot for a Google form about possible abroad trips during the spring of 2018. To help us plan effectively for next year, we would love your input.

STUDENTS: Do you need academic help in your science classes? National Science Honor Society tutors can support you! Email Brittany Ott at bott@merion-mercy.com today.
