

Trina Gary is an experienced independent school educator, administrator, and leadership coach with a demonstrated history of working in schools to affirm identity, build community and cultivate inclusive practice and policies. Trina is the CEO and Principal Consultant of Brown-Gary Associates, LLC, Founder and Executive Director of Independent Trust, a professional development and social impact network of independent school alumnae/alumni of color, Director of Inner City Lacrosse, and a consultant with Diversity Directions. Trina also serves on the Board of Trustees at The Community Partnership School in Philadelphia, PA. Trina has held a variety of positions during her tenure in four independent schools. In addition to teaching English and history, she has served as Associate Dean of Faculty, and as a Director of Multicultural Education. Trina has also served on the summer faculty of the Gardner Carney Leadership Institute (gcLi).

Trina holds an M.Ed. in Leadership in Learning and Instruction from Northeastern University, Boston, MA, and a BA from Trinity College, Hartford, CT. She and her partner, Michael Gary, are the parents of three children who are independent school graduates.