

MERION MERCY ACADEMY

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Diane Johnson DiCicco is an alumna of Merion Mercy Academy, class of 1997. Diane is Executive Vice President at Tierney, an full-service communications agency, part of the Interpublic Group of Companies (NYSE:IPG), offering integrated marketing, advertising, public relations, media, social media, and digital solutions. She has more than 14 years of experience developing and implementing strategic communications plans for a variety of brands, specializing in consumer and B2B brand management, corporate communications, social media, new business development, corporate philanthropy and integrated advertising campaigns. Prior to Tierney, Diane was Vice President of Global Marketing for Citi, where she managed all marketing, creative, and new business development efforts for Citi's corporate prepaid card business. Diane graduated from Ursinus College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications and received her MBA in Marketing from Drexel University's Lebow College of Business. Diane has been a member of the MMA Marketing Committee since 2014 and became a member of the Board in 2015.