ONLINE CREDIT COURSES

Students who wish to take an online course must receive permission from Miss Danovich. The online summer courses listed below are offered in conjunction with Mercy Education System and are open only to students currently enrolled in a Mercy high school. To be successful in an online course, students should possess the following skills: ability to organize, study, and learn in an independent environment; ability to work with others; effective written communication skills; technological capacity; critical thinking; desire to learn in a new medium; demonstration of patience; and commitment to learning. Students must have access to the internet and be willing to spend at least three hours per day on the course requirements.

The following courses all take place from June 17– July 19, 2019. Each course is ½ credit and has tuition of $350.

American Government (Pre-11th and pre-12th grades)

Fulfills one semester social studies credit requirement for graduation

In this ½ credit course, students will study the foundation, theory, structure, and process of American government. Students will analyze the Constitution and learn the branches of government and their roles and functions. Through exploration of current governmental issues, public policy, and the responsibilities of citizenship, students will further develop their skills of critical analysis. (May be taken only if no other semester Social Studies course will be taken during the school year.)

Anatomy (Pre-10th, pre-11th, and pre-12th grades)

Fulfills one semester science credit requirement for graduation

In this ½ credit course, lessons include an introduction to anatomy including language, organ systems, and types of tissues; study of the skeletal and muscular systems; study of the Cardiovascular and Respiratory Systems; study of the Digestive and Nervous Systems; and study of the urinary system and reproductive systems. Each lesson includes material to read and sites to access for information. Assignments require writing, analysis, critical thinking, and demonstration of core knowledge and concepts. Students participate in the Discussion Board sharing ideas on specified topics and questions.

Art History (Pre-10th, pre-11th, and pre-12th grades)

In this ½ credit course, students will study the visual arts in historical and cultural contexts. Through study and tours of virtual and real art museums and/or galleries, students will explore a variety of dimensions of artistic expression. Students will grow in the skill of critical analysis and be encouraged to deepen art appreciation.

Astronomy and Cosmology (Pre-10th, pre-11th and pre-12th grades)

Fulfills one semester science credit requirement for graduation

Humans have gazed into the sky for thousands of years pondering how our lives have connected to the sun, moon and stars. From Einstein's Theory of Relativity, to the exploration of the delicate relationships between our Earth and the Sun, this course explores some of the major discoveries in astronomy and astrophysics. Topics of this ½ credit course include the history of the telescope, The Big Bang Theory, stellar evolution, comets and asteroids, planets and moons, astrobiology, black holes and quasars, and the role of Catholicism in science and the exploration of space.

Creative Writing (Pre-10th, pre-11th and pre-12th grades)

Fulfills one semester English credit requirement for graduation

In this ½ credit course students will learn to write creatively in a wide variety of forms including poetry, narratives, and other literary forms. Students will develop skills in writing and in assessing creative work including effective expression.

Economics (Pre-11th and pre-12th grades)

Fulfills one semester social studies credit requirement for graduation

In this ½ credit course, students will study basic economic theory. Moreover, they will learn to apply basic economic concepts to real-world issues and problems. Knowledge of fundamental principles and application of theory will be addressed. Through this application, students will further develop their skills of critical analysis.

Fitness (Pre-10th, pre-11th, and pre-12th grades)

In this ½ credit course, the lessons include the following: the components of fitness, the F.I.T.T. principle and developing a personal fitness plan, fitness and safety, and healthy eating. Students will further develop their skills of critical analysis and be encouraged to strengthen and deepen appreciation for the need for fitness.

Global Affairs (Pre-10th, pre-11th, and pre-12th grades)

Fulfills one semester social studies credit requirement for graduation

In this ½ credit course students will explore a number of critical issues that face the global community. Topics will be chosen from historical and current economic, geographic, cultural and political issues. Study will focus on developing critical thinking skills.

Health (Pre-10th, pre-11th, and pre-12th graders)

In this ½ credit course, students will learn about and research contemporary health issues. Students will be able to apply practices and habits that will enhance their general health. Using the four domains (physical, social, emotional, and intellectual) of health, students will be able to specify healthy and unhealthy practices within each domain. By recognizing and critically analyzing current health problems for adolescents, students will discover prevention techniques and solutions to implement into their own lives.

Introduction to Psychology (Pre-10th, pre-11th, and pre-12th grades)

Fulfills one semester social studies credit requirement for graduation

In this ½ credit course, the focus will be on learning basic theories and principles of psychology. Four major areas of the study of psychology will be considered: Developmental Psychology, Cognition/Motivation and Emotions, Personality, and Social Psychology. Students will further develop their skills of critical analysis and be encouraged to strengthen and deepen their understanding of the field of psychology.

Music Appreciation (Pre-10th, pre-11th and pre-12th graders)

In this ½ credit course, students will study music in its historical and cultural contexts. Study will include a variety of genres and will include the works and contributions of significant artists and composers. Students will further develop their skills of critical analysis and be encouraged to deepen music appreciation.

Street Law (Pre-10th, pre-11th and pre-12th graders)
