THE DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS
Thursday, October 11, 2018

Day 5: Bell A
Spanish Language Week
Co-curricular period: Class meeting for juniors and seniors with the Jostens team
Enrichment time for freshmen and sophomores

“We must try to be like those rivers which enter into the sea without losing any of the sweetness of the water.”
~ Catherine McAuley

BRAVA: Congratulations to the Merion Mercy Varsity Tennis Team who won their first round of the District 1 team tournament play on Monday after defeating Upper Moreland 5-0. They will face Lower Moreland in the second round this afternoon. Best of luck girls!

In addition, Chloe Abramowitz, Nina Dzidic, Maddie Urbano, and Maddie Ott competed in the District 1 Tennis Doubles Qualifying Tournament yesterday. Chloe and Nina will play in the championship match tomorrow (Friday) against Gwynedd Mercy. We are so proud of you all. Go, Mennis!

STUDENTS: Here is a Crown Points update! Kudos to the freshmen who are still in the lead with 5,895 points! Seniors, you’re not too far behind with 5,315 points. The juniors are on their tail with 5,135 points. Sophomores have a respectable 3,210 points. Want your grade to be in the lead? Then come to Boathouse Row on the Schuylkill River this Saturday, October 13th to support our crew team in the Navy Day Regatta! Remember: take a selfie and email it to crownpoints@merion-mercy.com to have your attendance counted. With each submission, your grade will be awarded 30 points! Merion’s first race begins at 3:00pm and their last is at 5:00pm.

JUNIORS & SENIORS: Today during co-curricular period, while the freshmen and sophomores have enrichment time, you will have class meetings with the Jostens sales team. Juniors, report to the dining commons at that time to learn about ring orders. Seniors, report to the gym at that time to learn about graduation material orders.

HOMEROOMS: As you know, the Weenie Roast committee released this year’s plans and themes last week via Mr. Pidot’s email. Registration forms for the homeroom variety skit show were distributed to each homeroom through Activities Office folders. A completed form for each room must be returned to Mr. Pidot no later than 10:15am on Tuesday, October 16th. The acceptance and approval of ideas is managed on a first-come, first-served basis.

STUDENTS: The 74th annual Harvest Moon semi-formal dance will be held at MMA on Saturday, October 27th from 7:30pm to 10:30pm. Tickets will be on sale in the Office of Student Affairs during lunch and after school from Tuesday, October 16th through Friday, October 26th. A couple’s ticket will cost $35 and a single’s ticket will cost $20. Information and details are available online now; visit www.merion-mercy.com/harvestmoon.

FINER THINGS: There will be an important meeting of The Finer Things Club on Wednesday, October 17th at 8:30am in room 121. All new and returning members are welcome.

STUDENTS: Become a CSC Friend of the Wissahickon. The first volunteer day will be a joint MMA and SJP session on Saturday, October 27th, from 9:00am to 1:00pm. Volunteers must be 14 or older and present a signed waiver form at the service site. See Ms. Sack for forms and additional information. Once you are sure you can go, sign up at the CSC bulletin board and register online at https://www.fow.org/volunteering/workinthepark/.